[Eiffel Tower] (exterior visit): one of the symbols of Paris, the Eiffel Tower is one of the most famous towers in the world and offers magnificent panoramic views of the city;

Notre-Dame Cathedral(exterior visit) : this Gothic church is a landmark of Paris, with a long history and architectural value;

[Arc de Triomphe] (exterior visit) : one of the most famous monuments in Paris and France, symbolising the glorious achievements of the French army.

Seine River Cruise(Activity Package), one of the most iconic tourist experiences in Paris, takes visitors on a beautiful tour of Paris on this famous river.

[Versailles] (Activity Package) is a palace in the south-west of Paris, France, famous for its magnificent architecture, exquisite gardens and rich history. Originally started as a hunting lodge by Louis XIII in 1623, Versailles was later expanded into a palace by his son Louis XIV in 1661. The palace became the main residence of the French kings and a symbol of the absolute monarchy of France. The Palace of Versailles was built in the Baroque style and the architectural design was carried out by the architect Louis Le Vau, who was later joined by other architects. The palace's architecture is unique, full of luxury and grandeur, showing the power and splendour of the French kingship in the 17th century. The palace consists of the main building and the gardens, which have several palace wings, the most famous of which is the 'Hall of Mirrors', a sumptuously decorated hall with mirrors, which used to be the venue for important international meetings and the signing of important treaties.
