DAY 2 Paris

Paris is a fascinating city that combines history, art, food and romance. Whether it's exploring museums, strolling the streets, or enjoying fine dining, Paris offers unique and unforgettable experiences and is a dream destination in every traveler's mind.

Louvre (inside visit): One of the largest art museums in the world, the Louvre houses a vast collection of art treasures, including the Mona Lisa and the Triumph of Venus;

Eiffel Tower (exterior visit): one of the symbols of Paris and one of the most famous towers in the world, offering a magnificent panoramic view of the city;

Arc de Triomphe (exterior visit) : one of the most famous monuments in Paris and even in France, symbolizing the brilliant achievements of the French army.

Avenue des Champs-Élysées, one of the most famous streets in Paris, known as "the most beautiful street in the world".

Hotel : Occidental Paris Levallois or equivalent B : Hotel

DAY 3 Paris – Lyon

France's third-largest city, it is located in southeastern France at the confluence of the Rhône and Saône rivers. Famous for its rich history, gastronomic culture and unique architecture, Lyon is a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

An exterior visit to the Basilique Notre-Dame de Fourvière, a famous church in Lyon, France, known for its magnificent architecture and breathtaking views. Situated on the hill of Fourvière, the church overlooks the entire city of Lyon and is one of the city's major landmarks.

Vieux Lyon is the historic center of Lyon, France, known for its well-preserved Renaissance architecture and charming streets. Listed as a UNESCO World Heritage Site, it is an ideal place for visitors to explore the history and culture of Lyon.

DAY 4 Lyon - Palais Idéal du Facteur Cheval - Avignon - Arles

Palais Idéal du Facteur Cheval (inside visit), is a unique building in southeastern France, in the small town of Deira (Hauterives). Built independently by postman Ferdinand Cheval in the late 19th century, the palace showcases his unique vision of art and architecture. The style of the Ideal Palace combines a variety of architectural elements, including Gothic, Romanesque, Indian and Arabic styles, to create a unique and fantastical body of architecture. The exterior walls of the palace are richly carved with decorations such as animals, plants, mythological figures and religious symbols, demonstrating the richness of Chaval's imagination.

Avignon, a historic city in the south of France, is famous for its rich cultural heritage and beautiful landscapes. Located along the Rhone River, Avignon was once the residence of the Popes, hence the name "City of the Popes".

Palais des Papes (exterior Visit): Avignon's most famous landmark is the Palais des Papes, a magnificent Gothic building that was once the residence of the Popes in the 14th century. The Palais des Papes is one of the largest Gothic buildings in Europe, with an ornate interior that showcases the splendor of religious art.

Pont Saint-Bénézet (exterior Visit), a bridge that was originally about 900 meters long, but due to natural disasters such as floods, the surviving section of the bridge has only four arches (two of which were rebuilt). This makes the bridge look both old and historic.

Arles, a historic city in the south of France, located at the entrance of the Rhone River, is known for its rich historical sites and artistic atmosphere. Arles is favored by tourists for its Roman ruins and its association with artists, especially the painter Vincent van Gogh. Arles was an important city for Vincent van Gogh's work, and it is here that he created many of his famous paintings, such as Café de la Nuit and Sunflowers.

Hotel : Ibis Arles or equivalent B : Hotel

DAY 5 Arles - Valensole - Lac de Sainte-Croix

After breakfast at the hotel, today's tour starts at 08:30.

Valensole is known for its spectacular lavender fields, which bloom to create a sea of purple. The lavender here not only attracts many photographers, but has also become an important source of spices and essential oils.

Lac de Sainte-Croix, located in the Provence-Alpes-Côte d'Azur region of France, is a man-made lake famous for its crystal clear waters and the magnificent natural scenery surrounding it. Located in the Durand department (Var), the lake is formed by the Verdon dyke and is a popular destination for water sports and nature exploration.

Hotel : Le Néliö or equivalent B : Hotel

DAY 6 Grasse – Cannes – Nice

Grasse, the world famous center of perfume production, dates back to the 16th century. There are many perfume factories and museums where visitors can take a tour, learn about the process of perfume production and even take a perfume blending course to create their own perfume.

MUSÉE DE PARFUM FRAGONARDM (inside visit), was particularly innovative for its time as the first perfume museum in the city of Grasse. The museum exhibits more than a hundred precious perfume artifacts from antiquity to the present day, including a series of women's dressing gowns and Provençal-style furniture.

Palais des Cinémas de Cannes (exterior visit), a prestigious convention center in Cannes, France, famous for its annual Cannes International Film Festival. The modern architecture and grandeur of the Palais des Cinémas make it one of the landmarks of Cannes. In addition to the film festival, the Palais des Cinémas in Cannes hosts a variety of international conferences, exhibitions and cultural events, keeping it active throughout the year.

The Bay of Angels in Nice has long sandy beaches and pebbled shores, perfect for swimming, sunbathing and water sports. The water here is crystal clear and the blue of the sea meets the sun to create a breathtaking view. There is a beautiful trail along the shore of the bay where visitors can walk, bike or jog while enjoying the breathtaking views of the bay and the surrounding natural landscape.

Hotel : Ibis Nice Aéroport Promenade des Anglais or equivalent B : Hotel

DAY 7 Nice – Monaco – Gordes

Monaco, an independent city-state located in the south of France, is known for its luxurious lifestyle, stunning coastline and rich culture. Monaco is one of the smallest countries in the world and despite its size, it is influential in tourism, finance and entertainment.

(Exterior visit) of the Palais Princier: the residence of the Monegasque royal family, located on Castle Hill. Visitors can tour parts of the palace and learn about Monaco's history and royal culture. There is also a daily changing of the guard ceremony in front of the palace at noon.

Gordes, located in the Provence region of France, is a very famous and beautiful mountain village, considered one of the most beautiful villages in France. Nestled on the slopes of the Luberon Mountains, the village of Gordes is known for its stone buildings, winding alleys and spectacular landscapes, attracting a large number of tourists to experience its unique charm.

DAY 8 Annecy

Annecy is a picturesque town in the Rhône-Alpes region of southeastern France, located on the shores of Lac d'Annecy, close to the Alps and known as the "Balcony of the Alps". Famous for its beautiful lake, canals and well-preserved medieval architecture, Annecy is considered one of the most beautiful cities in France.

Palais de l'Île (exterior visit), Palais de l'Île is Annecy's landmark building, located on a small island in the Thiou Canal, shaped like a boat. Once a courthouse and prison, this medieval building is now a museum showcasing the city's history and architectural heritage.

Pont des Amours (exterior visit), spans the Grand Canal de Vissan between Lake Annecy and the Thiou Canal, and legend has it that if couples kiss on the bridge, their love will last forever. Therefore, many couples visit this bridge to take photos and kiss on the bridge.

Hotel : Ibis Styles Mâcon Centre or equivalent B : Hotel

DAY 9 Annecy – Beaune

Located in the Bourgogne region of France, Beaune is known as the wine capital of the country and is regarded as one of the hearts of French wine culture. The town is not only famous for its high quality wines, but also attracts visitors with its rich history, fine architecture and cultural heritage.

Hospices de Beaune (inside visit): One of the landmarks of Beaune is the Hospices de Beaune, also known as the Hôtel-Dieu de Beaune. Built in 1443, the building was founded by Nicolas Roland, then Duke of Burgundy, and his wife as a hospital for the poor. Its architecture combines Gothic and Renaissance elements, and it is particularly known for its colorful glazed tile roofs, a unique architectural style in Burgundy. Today, the Poor House is a museum, displaying medical equipment, wards and works of art from the period. The famous altarpiece of The Last Judgment by Rogier van der Weyden is a very important work of art.

The region is known for the production of high quality red and white Burgundy wines, with the main grape varieties including Pinot Noir and Chardonnay. Beaune is surrounded by numerous wineries that offer tours and wine tasting experiences (5 years old and above).

DAY 10 Reims – Versailles

Reims, a historical and cultural city in the Marne department of the Grand Est region of northeastern France, located about 130 kilometers east of Paris, is known for its rich history, cultural heritage and its status as the home of Champagne. Reims is not only the coronation city of the French royal family, but also attracts a large number of tourists for its magnificent church architecture and vineyards.

Cathédrale Notre-Dame de Reims (exterior visit), Reims' most famous landmark, built in the 13th century, is a magnificent Gothic church. It is known not only for its grand scale and beautifully carved exterior, but also for its historical position - from the 13th century onwards, almost all the coronations of French kings took place here. The cathedral is lined with brilliantly colored stained glass windows, especially notable for the modern stained windows designed by Marc Chagall. The Palace of Versailles (inside visit) is a palace in southwestern Paris, France, known for its grand architecture, exquisite gardens and rich history, inside. Originally begun as a hunting lodge by Louis XIII in 1623, Versailles was later expanded into a palace by his son Louis XIV in 1661. This palace became the main palace of the French kings and a symbol of the absolute monarchy of France.
