DAY 5 Rotterdam - Zaandam - Giethoorn - Amsterdam

Zaandam a city full of history and cultural charm, is located about 15 kilometres from Amsterdam. 'The Three Treasures of Holland' usually refers to the three most representative features of the Netherlands: windmills, cheese and wooden shoes.

The windmill is one of the symbols of the Netherlands and a symbol of Dutch engineering ingenuity. Throughout history, windmills have been used for a variety of functions, the most important being to help the Dutch drain water from low-lying areas and prevent the land from flooding. Windmills were also used for industrial purposes such as grinding flour, sawing wood and producing oil.

Cheese, Dutch cheese is a world-famous speciality with a long history and a wide variety. One of the most famous varieties of cheese in the Netherlands is Gouda, named after the city of Gouda in the south of the country. Gouda cheese has a soft flavour and fine texture, and is suitable for different stages of ripening.

Wooden shoes, wooden shoes are a traditional Dutch handicraft and part of the daily life of working people. They were first used in agriculture, fishing and other jobs that required waterproofing and abrasion resistance. Although wooden shoes are no longer worn on a daily basis in modern times, they remain an important symbol of traditional Dutch culture.

Giethoorn, a beautiful and unique village, is often referred to as the 'Venice of the Netherlands' or the 'Venice of the North'. Famous for its criss-crossing canals, peaceful nature and unique layout with no traditional roads, it is one of the most popular tourist destinations in the Netherlands.

Giethoorn Boat Cruise (Activity Package), The most distinctive feature of this Village is its network of waterways. There are hardly any normal car roads in the village and the main means of transport are boats or bicycles. Visitors can rent a boat or join a boat tour to travel along the crystal clear canals and admire the traditional Dutch houses, gardens and bridges with thatched roofs on both sides of the village.
