

【2027】 New Edition

France Italy Switzerland

10 DAYS 9 NIGHTS Upgraded Itinerary

Stay in Premium 3-4 Star Hotels Throughout

Twin Share

US$1,888 per person
(Single Supplement: US$ 750 per person)

Tour Code FRSP000177

Departure Dates (2027)

02/26 • 03/26 • 04/15 • 05/21 • 06/18
07/16 • 08/13 • 09/10 • 10/08 • 12/27

✓ What's Included?

1. Luxury private vehicle for the entire itinerary
2. Professional bilingual tour guide (Chinese/English); groups of 7 or fewer will be led by a driver-guide
3. One airport pickup in Paris (between 08:00 and 22:00) and one airport drop-off in Rome (at 08:00)
4. Admission tickets and audio guides for the Louvre Museum and the Palace of Versailles
5. 9 nights in 3-4 star hotels (Note: For triple-occupancy bookings, please be aware that European hotels typically designate standard rooms as triples; rooms are generally compact and cannot accommodate extra beds. Final room assignments depend on hotel availability; specific room types, bed configurations, or layouts cannot be guaranteed or requested in advance.)
6. Western-style breakfast at the hotel

✗ What's not Included?

1. Admission tickets for attractions not mentioned above, personal expenses, and any items not listed
2. International round-trip airfare, lunches and dinners, personal accident insurance, luggage insurance, etc.
3. Single room supplement: $750 USD per person
4. Service fees for the driver and tour guide (mandatory; please prepare exact change): €10 per person per day (total €100); same rate for adults and children
5. Mandatory additional fees ($130 USD per person): Venice island transfer boat tickets, Venice tourist tax, and Italian city entry fees

$ Optional excursions

1. Seine River Cruise: €18/person; Jungfrau Excursion: €275/person
2. Uffizi Gallery admission and audio guide: €55/person
3. Colosseum admission and audio guide: €31/person
4. Venice Grand Canal Tour: €40/person (minimum 8 people)
5. Venice Gondola Ride: €40/person (minimum 2 people)
6. In-depth Rome Tour (including St. Peter's Basilica): €70 per person (minimum group size of 8).
7. Additional Paris airport pickup: 1-3 people: €150/trip; 4-6 people: €180/trip; 7 people or more: price upon request.
8. Additional Rome airport drop-off: 1-3 people: €180/trip; 4-6 people: €200/trip; 7 people or more: price upon request.

Meal reference

Chinese group meals in France and Italy (6 dishes and 1 soup): €25 per person (reference price based on a minimum of 8 people); Chinese group meals in Switzerland: €40 per person; French specialty meal: €45 per person; Swiss specialty meal: €60 per person; Italian specialty meal: €45 per person. All Service fee and optional expenses are settled in Euros. Please prepare Euro cash in advance.

Tour Itinerary

DAY 1 Arrival in Paris Hotel : 3-4 star hotels

Fly from your departure city to Paris CDG airport.

Welcome to Paris, the romantic capital of France. As one of the world's most famous cities, Paris is renowned for its romantic atmosphere, rich history and cultural heritage, beautiful architecture, and delicious cuisine. Airport transfer to your hotel; free time afterwards. Free airport pick-up service is available from 8:00 AM to 10:00 PM on the day of your visit.

Optional activity: Paris in-depth tour, €80 per person (minimum group of 6; customers must arrive before 12:00 PM on the day of your visit). Optional : In-depth tour of Paris, €80/person (from 6 people, customers need to land before 12PM on the this day)

DAY 2 Paris Hotel : 3-4 star hotels / B : Hotel

Louvre (inside visit) : one of the largest art museums in the world, with a vast collection of art treasures, including the Mona Lisa and the Triumph of Venus; Eiffel Tower (exterior visit) : one of the symbols of Paris, the Eiffel Tower is one of the most famous towers in the world and offers magnificent panoramic views of the city;

Notre-Dame Cathedral (exterior visit) : this Gothic church is a landmark of Paris, with a long history and architectural value;

Arc de Triomphe (exterior visit) : one of the most famous monuments in Paris and France, symbolising the glorious achievements of the French army. Champs-Élysées is an avenue in the French capital, Paris, known as the most beautiful street in the city.

Arc de Triomphe (View from the exterior): one of the most famous monuments in Paris and France, symbolising the glorious achievements of the French army.

DAY 3 Chateau de Versailles - French town Hotel : 3-4 star hotels / B : Hotel

Versailles Palace, (Visit the interior) a palace located southwest of Paris, France, is renowned for its magnificent architecture, exquisite gardens, and rich history. Originally built as a hunting lodge by Louis XIII starting in 1623, it was later expanded into a palace by his son, Louis XIV, in 1661. This palace became the principal residence of the French monarchs and a symbol of the absolute monarchy.

Versailles Palace is built in the Baroque style, with its architecture designed by Louis Le Vining, later joined by other architects. The palace's unique architectural style, full of luxury and grandeur, showcases the power and splendor of the 17th-century French monarchy. The palace comprises the main building and gardens. The main building has several palace wings, the most famous of which is the Hall of Mirrors, a lavishly decorated hall with mirrors, which was once the site of important international conferences and the signing of important treaties.

DAY 4 French town - Colmar - Bern Hotel : 3-4 star hotels / B : Hotel

Colmar is a charming town in the Alsace region of northeastern France. Known for its well-preserved old town, colorful half-timbered houses, and picturesque canals, it is often called "Little Venice."

Maison des Têtes A historic building dating back to 1609, famous for its ornate façade decorated with over 100 carved heads.
Quai de la Poissonnerie -This historic area of Colmar, also called the Fishermen's Quarter, features colorful half-timbered houses along the canals. Once home to local fishermen, it now offers a charming atmosphere for walking, taking photos, and enjoying the picturesque canals.

Maison Pfister (exterior visit) Built in 1537, Maison Pfister is an iconic Renaissance house in Colmar, famous for its wooden galleries, frescoes, and elegant architecture. Its whimsical design and historic charm are said to have inspired the scenery in the animated film Howl's Moving Castle by Studio Ghibli.

Clock Tower (exterior visit), The clock tower is equipped with a medieval astronomical clock and figurines are performed every hour. Federal Palace (exterior visit), Located on Bern's Parliament Square, it is a stately building that offers regular free guided tours to inform the public about the Swiss political system.

The Old Town, UNESCO World Heritage Site, is famous for its well-preserved medieval buildings, cobblestone streets and iconic fountains. Set on a peninsula on the Aare River, the Old Town is the perfect place to explore the city's history.

DAY 5 Bern - Interlaken - Italian town Hotel : 3-4 star hotels / B : Hotel

Optional excursion to Jungfrau (at your own expense) to the summit, where you can enjoy breathtaking views of the 23-kilometer-long Aletsch Glacier, the longest glacier in Europe, and the stunning scenery of the Jungfrau mountain range. Walking on the millennia-old glacier and traversing among the peaks, you'll experience a sense of luxury and the smallness of the world. The Jungfrau Railway, hailed as one of the greatest engineering feats of mountaineering, was completed over a century ago. It winds its way along the north face of the Eiger, reaching Eiger Station in just 15 minutes. With an elevation difference of over 1000 meters and no stops along the way, it is a landmark and masterpiece of the Swiss transportation system.

DAY 6 Italian town - Milan - Verona Hotel : 3-4 star hotels / B : Hotel

Visit the exterior of Milan Cathedral. Located in the heart of Milan, on the site of the former Basilica of Santa Maria Nasional de Entemarchia, the Milan Cathedral is a landmark of the city. A masterpiece of Gothic architecture, its style is elegant and solemn.

The Galleria Vittorio Emanuele II, a famous shopping mall in Milan, Italy, is renowned for its spectacular arcades and magnificent glass dome. Named after King Vittorio Emanuele II of Italy, it is one of the oldest shopping malls in the world, housing a variety of brand-name stores, restaurants, and cafes.

The Verona Arena (exterior visit). This well-preserved Roman amphitheater, built in the 1st century AD, is still used for opera performances and concerts. It is one of the largest and most famous ancient arenas in Italy.

The Juliet House (exterior visit). Famous for the balcony featured in Shakespeare's play Romeo and Juliet, visitors come to see the balcony, the Juliet statue, and leave messages of love on the walls.

Piazza della Signoria (exterior visit) is the historic center of Verona. This vibrant square is surrounded by colorful medieval buildings, markets, cafes and fountains, providing a lively atmosphere for sightseeing and leisure.

DAY 7 Venice - Pisa Hotel : 3-4 star hotels / B : Hotel

St. Mark's Square, one of Venice's most famous squares, is considered the city's heart. It features St. Mark's Basilica and its bell tower, making it one of Venice's most important religious and cultural landmarks.

St. Mark's Basilica, one of Venice's most magnificent churches, is renowned for its Byzantine and Gothic architecture and its opulent interior.

The Bridge of Sighs connects the Palazzo Dogi and the New Prison. It's called the "Bridge of Sighs" because it's said that prisoners, on their way to prison, would sigh at the beautiful view of Venice from the bridge. The bridge is famous for its unique architecture and long history.

One of Pisa's most famous attractions is the Leaning Tower of Pisa, a white marble bell tower famous for its pronounced tilt. The Leaning Tower is part of the Pisa Cathedral, and together they form the Piazza dei Miracoli (Square of Miracles).

DAY 8 Pisa - Florence Hotel : 3-4 star hotels / B : Hotel

The Florence Cathedral (Santa Maria del Fiore), also known as the Florence Cathedral, is one of Florence's most famous buildings, renowned for its massive dome and magnificent facade. Visitors can climb to the top of the dome for panoramic views of the city (exterior view only).

The Uffizi Gallery (self-pay option) was begun in 1560. It was originally commissioned by Giorgio Vasari from Cosimo I de' Medici, the first Grand Duke of Tuscany, as the office of the municipal judicial authorities (Uffizi means "office" in Italian).

DAY 9 Rome - Vatican City Hotel : 3-4 star hotels / B : Hotel

Due to restrictions on buses in Rome's restricted areas, tours of the city will be conducted on foot or by public transport, led by a guide. The Colosseum (self-pay inside visit), one of the most famous buildings in ancient Rome and one of the largest ancient amphitheaters in the world, was built between 70 and 80 AD by Emperor Vespasian to accommodate various public entertainment activities.

The Trevi Fountain, also known as the Wishing Fountain, is one of the most famous fountains in the world. Traditionally, throwing a coin into the fountain with your back to it can help you find love. The fountain is renowned for its magnificent Baroque style and exquisite sculptures. One of the iconic buildings in Vatican City is St. Peter's Basilica, one of the largest Catholic churches in the world. Its domes and sculptural art attract countless pilgrims and tourists (exterior view only).

DAY 10 Rome - Next Destination B : Hotel

After breakfast, transfer to the airport for your next destination (airport transfer will depart from the hotel at 8:00 AM; guests are advised to choose flights departing after 12:00 PM).