Nearby photo-worthy spots include the castle bears and the Cloak Bridge.

Popular local dining options include Švejk Restaurant and Restaurant Jelenka, known for authentic Czech classics and quality beer.

Old Town Highlights: Concord Square is surrounded by colorful medieval buildings. St. Vitus Church, built in the early 14th century, combines Gothic and Baroque elements; a key highlight is its delicate ribbed vaulted ceiling. The Plague (Black Death) Monument was built in memory of the victims of the 1679–1680 plague outbreak that swept through Europe.
