DAY 1 Berlin → Lüneburg → Hamburg

HOTEL : Four star or similar

In the morning, our driver-guide will meet you at the pre-arranged time and location to begin the journey.

Lüneburg – a charming medieval town in northern Germany, famous for its “white gold” salt history.

Town Hall: a symbol of the salt city's former prosperity; see the legendary boar leg bone linked to the discovery of salt springs.

German Salt Museum: on the site of a historic saltworks. Learn about 1,000 years of salt production and the Hanseatic “white gold” trade.

Lüne Abbey: a former Benedictine convent known for well-preserved medieval architecture, a tranquil atmosphere and fine textile art.

Hamburg – the “Gateway to the World”, renowned for its great port, canals, bridges and lively nightlife.

Miniatur Wunderland: the world's largest model railway exhibition with amazingly detailed scenes (Hamburg harbour, Austria, USA and more).

Elbphilharmonie: an architectural icon with a wave-like glass façade; enjoy harbour views from the plaza.

Speicherstadt: the largest historic warehouse district of brick buildings on oak piles, crisscrossed by canals.

Hamburg City Hall: a grand Neo-Renaissance building—seat of the city's parliament and senate.

St. Pauli Piers: Hamburg's largest landing stages—great for harbour scenery and optional boat cruises.

Reeperbahn: the city's famous entertainment district and an early stage for The Beatles.

DAY 2 Hamburg → Stade → Buxtehude → Bremen (B)

HOTEL : Four star or similar

Stade – a charming town with over 1,000 years of history, beautifully preserving North German medieval ambience.

Historic Harbour Area: colourful half-timbered houses line the waterways—perfect for a relaxing walk by the docks.

Old Town: cobbled streets and well-preserved half-timbered buildings; the market square and town hall are the heart of local life.

Buxtehude – a fairytale-route town known for the Brothers Grimm story “The Hare and the Hedgehog”.

St. Peter's Church: a landmark example of Brick Gothic architecture, with historic organ and altar features.

Old Town & Harbour: scenic canals and half-timbered houses—stroll along the water or enjoy the quaint port atmosphere.

Bremen – famous for Grimm's fairytale legend and UNESCO World Heritage status.

Bremen Town Hall (UNESCO): an outstanding symbol of civic autonomy in medieval Europe.

Roland Statue (UNESCO): built in 1404, symbolising freedom, justice and free trade.

Town Musicians of Bremen: bronze sculpture inspired by the classic Grimm tale—rub the donkey's legs for luck, according to legend.

DAY 3 Bremen → Verden → Nienburg → Bad Oeynhausen (B)

HOTEL : Four star or similar

Verden – a fairytale-route town known as the “equestrian city” and “cathedral city”.

Verden Cathedral: rebuilt after several fires and completed around 1490—admire the baptismal font, carved altar and the legendary “Stone Man” figure.

Horse Museum: Germany's oldest museum dedicated to equestrian heritage, located in former cavalry barracks.

Nienburg – the “asparagus town” where history and modern life blend, with its unique ‘bear paw’ themed trail. Bear Paw Trail: follow the white paw prints through the old town (approx. 3.3 km loop) to key sights and half-timbered quarters. St. Martin's Church: a brick-built landmark with notable artworks and a grand organ.

Asparagus Museum: learn about local asparagus cultivation history and traditions.

Police Museum: interactive exhibits presenting the history and work of Lower Saxony's police.

Bad Oeynhausen – a spa town on the fairytale route, known for healing thermal waters and cultural charm.

Bali Therme: Bali-themed wellness complex with indoor/outdoor pools and 14 sauna experiences.

Jordansprudel Fountain: one of the world's strongest carbonated thermal brine fountains, spraying up to 40 metres.

DAY 4 Bad Oeynhausen → Hameln → Hanover → Berlin (B)

Hameln – a must-see fairytale town, famous for the legend of the Pied Piper of Hameln. Pied Piper's House: built in 1602; inscriptions recount the story of the children who vanished—plus themed statues and fountains around town. Wedding House: Weser Renaissance architecture, known for its musical chimes linked to the Pied Piper legend.

Hameln Museum: exhibits on the town's history and artefacts relating to the Pied Piper story. Old Town: stroll among romantic Renaissance half-timbered houses.

Hanover – a city blending modern life and royal heritage, known for its vast exhibition grounds and ‘garden city’ reputation.

Herrenhausen Gardens: world-famous Baroque gardens inspired by Versailles—visit the Great Garden and surrounding complexes.

New Town Hall: castle-like Neo-Gothic landmark (1913). Ride the unique arched elevator to the viewing dome for panoramic city views.

Maschsee Lake: a central artificial lake for leisure—boating, jogging and the annual Maschsee Festival.

Old Town: charming streets with remaining half-timbered houses; see the Market Church and the Old Town Hall.

Arrive Berlin in the evening. Your driver-guide will drop you off at the pre-arranged location. End of service.
