Pompeii Archaeological Site – an open-air history textbook revealing everyday Roman life from 2,000 years ago.

House of the Vettii: a remarkably preserved wealthy merchant's home with exquisite frescoes and a colonnaded courtyard.

Amphitheatre: one of the oldest Roman amphitheatres, built about a century earlier than Rome's Colosseum.

Temple of Apollo & Forum: the political, religious and commercial centre, surrounded by key public buildings—feel the heart of Roman city planning.

DAY 2 Sorrento → Capri Island → Blue Grotto → Sorrento (B)

HOTEL : Four star or similar

Sorrento – perched on dramatic tuff cliffs overlooking the Bay of Naples; an ideal base for Capri and the Amalfi Coast.

Capri Island – a famed retreat for Roman emperors, artists and the wealthy, celebrated for sapphire-blue waters and luxury villas.

Sorrento Ferry Pier: take an optional ferry to Capri (about 40 minutes).

Blue Grotto: take an optional small boat (about 15 minutes) to this must-see sea cave, famous for its dreamlike glowing blue water—often called the “Mediterranean Sapphire”.

Anacapri Chairlift: optional open single-seat chairlift to Mt. Solaro, the island's highest point—an immersive ride with magnificent 360-degree coastal views.

DAY 3 Sorrento → Amalfi Coast → Positano → Amalfi Town (B)

HOTEL : Four star or similar

Amalfi Coast – one of the world's most beautiful coastlines and a “must-visit in a lifetime”; known for dramatic cliffs, colourful towns and rich history.

Positano – the jewel of the Amalfi Coast, often called one of the most romantic towns on the Mediterranean; famous for its vertical landscape and pastel houses.

Seafont stroll: walk the promenade, enjoy coastal views, sample local snacks and coffee, and soak up the romance of Southern Italy.

DAY 4 Amalfi Coast → Caserta → Tivoli (Villa d'Este) → Rome (B)

Caserta – built by order of King Charles VII of the Bourbon dynasty to rival Versailles and Spain's Royal Palace of Madrid.

Royal Palace of Caserta: one of Europe's largest 18th-century palaces, designed by Luigi Vanvitelli—over 1,200 rooms, 24 grand halls, 1,742 windows and about 47,000 m² of floor area, with lavish Baroque and Neoclassical decoration.

Tivoli – Villa d'Este (“Hundred Fountains”): famed for its gardens with 500 spectacular fountains and waterfalls; a UNESCO World Heritage Site (inscribed 2001) and a filming location of Bruce Lee's classic movie.

Avenue of the Hundred Fountains: lined with hundreds of small fountains and sculptures featuring eagles, lilies and boat motifs—showcasing remarkable engineering and artistry.

Oval Fountain: a masterpiece of late Renaissance water-garden design, mimicking natural landscapes with cascades flowing into a giant semi-oval basin for a dramatic visual impact.

Dragon Fountain: four dragon sculptures spouting powerful jets, built to commemorate Pope Gregory XIII's visit (whose coat of arms features a dragon).
